The first instalment was sant from Silver City, where Jack received $235 for walloping Lais Gonalez, accompanied by a letter from Jack's manager to his parents. As the big middleweight, who is now at Mimbres Hot Springs, N. M., has a number of fights in prospect, the bank account of the relatives in Kewanee, will receive a boost after every battle. Joe also sent a similar amount to Kewanee after his bout with Ross recently at Clifton. determined that they will share their earnings with their mother and alsters. Joe is now billed to meet "Kid" Hoss at Morenci, on Feb. 9, and will leave shortly for the smelter town. The former contest between the two light middleweights proved a big drawing card, chiefity because of the southwestern reputation of Herrick. From Duncan, Clifton, Morenci and Metcalf, Ariz, fans turned out in large numbers, and it is very probable that a special will be run from each of the towns in order that the fans may witness the return and deciding battle. 255 485 389 291 342 1962 Hill ........262 203 220 171 183 979 Watson .....360 210 158 150 161 839 362 413 378 321 344 1818 A. Following a long conference between county attorney P. W. O'Sullivan and attorney general George Purdy Bullard, it was announced that O'Sullivan would the conference of the C attorney general George Purdy Buillard. It was announced that O'Sullivan would file an "information" against the lightweights in the superior court and would prosecute them under Buillard's interpretation of the law. Bullard holds that any glove contest engaged in for a reward of whatsoever nature is a prize fight and therefore a violation of the statute.

O'Sullivan did not take this view of the matter and caused two charges filed against each of the fighters, at the instigation of the civic league, to be diamissed. When he learned the opinion of the attorney general he stated that there was nothing for him to do but to proceed with the prosecution.

Originally eight others, connected with the fight in which Mathews and Knight were principals, were arrested, but O'Suiliyan moved for the dismissal of the charges against them. Only Knight and Mathews will be prosecuted.

Mrs. A. L. Bassett of Ackworth, for-

I commenced to be troubled seriously with stiffness and soreness of my joints. I could scarcely walk. My knees were so stiff and sore. We had our home doctor and he doctored me for awhile, and it seemed as though I grew worse every day and then we had another doc tor come and see me and by that time I could not walk without a cane and suffered intense agony all the time. My limbs just throbbed and ached like toothache. I could scarcely sleep day or night and I was so nervous at times that I did not know what to do with Arrive myself. Both the doctors told me I had 1.45 pm rheumatism of the nerves and museles. 1.15 pm but it seemed they could do me no good. 1.250 pm After seeing an article about you in the 10:00 am paper, we went down to see you, and 5:00 am reactically well. I don't think I will myself. Both the doctors told me I had practically well. I don't think I will have to take the treatment much longer I can do nearly all of my work and I sleep almost as good as I did when a child. Mrs. A. L. Bassett, Ackworth, Dr. O. A. year.
Several new pitchers are revealed in Mack's long string. They are O. Baker, Van De Veer, Boken and Graves, and the young catchers signed up are McAvoy and Sturgis.
The outfielders besides E. Murphy, Strunk and Oldring, include Daley, Thompson and Brickley, the latter a brother of Harvard's football captain.
